

HP Creator 16.1-inch Laptop Backpack

Take Your Studio on the Road

Whether you're a professional or an aspiring one, you need to be travel ready when your creativity strikes. Protect and take your whole setup on the road with an easy-access, customizable compartment for devices of all shapes and sizes. With the water-resistant cover¹ and lightweight design, this backpack keeps you ready to make amazing things wherever you are.

Everything in it's Place

Protect all your devices, accessories, and projects in their very own spot. Customize the main compartment into all shapes and sizes to fit your equipment with removable padded dividers. With the built-in water-resistant cover¹, you can move fluidly through the world and be up and ready to go whenever inspiration strikes, rain or shine.

Your Ideas Are Going Places

Lightweight construction and heavy duty, yet comfy, travel straps keep you comfortable wherever you are. Extra waist and sternum straps keep the weight distributed comfortably. The quick access compartment for laptops up to 16.1-inches is great for packing up fast or unpacking even faster. Now that's travel ready.

Inspiration: Secured

Get back to making cool things, your other stuff is safe in here. You've got a RFID-blocking pocket to keep your data safe from digital pickpockets and anti-theft zippers, securable with a small D-ring. Now that's some futuristic backpack stuff right there.

Looks Good. Does Good.

Carrying your studio wherever you go has never felt lighter with a backpack that contains 100% recycled plastic in the external material. Now you can create cool stuff on the go knowing that there's 13 less plastic bottles out there².
